

Procedure for Nomination & the Eligibility Criteria for ORATIONS of IAPSM

- For Dhanvantari/ Harcharan Singh Orations of IAPSM , nomination has to be submitted by a Proposer and a Seconder who are Life Members of IAPSM. One of them has to be a Fellow of IAPSM. The other person has to be someone having a designation of Professor or above.
- It is mandatory that the Proposer attaches one set of Bio-data of the nominee along with the nomination form. The Bio-data of the nominee with photo-copies of the relevant supporting documents must be arranged as per format for such nominations.
- A Proposer or Seconder can nominate only one nominee in a year. Other nominations made by the Proposer and the Seconder after first nomination in a year by them will be automatically considered invalid.
- Please note that only a life-member and Fellow of IAPSM with a minimum of 15 years distinguished standing in the profession (after doctorate degree of MD or Ph.D. in Community Medicine or allied subjects such as Biostatistics) can be nominated for these Orations. (Candidates with MPH or M.Sc. alone are NOT eligible for Orations).
- The nominee can be considered for award of the IAPSM Oration only after 3 (three) clear years have elapsed from the year of getting selected for FIAPSM.
- An awardee can be considered for other Orations of IAPSM only after THREE clear years have passed from the year of delivering the last oration by her/him
- Last date for receipt of such nominations is 30th November for a given year. (A year means from 1st April of a year to 31st March of next year). This date will not be extended under any circumstances.
- All the valid Oration nominations will be evaluated by the Governing Council or its sub-committee against a set of pre-decided criteria. The awardees' names will be announced in the General Council meeting of IAPSM (usually held on the 2nd day of the National Conference).
- The chosen Orators will deliver their orations in plenary sessions of the next National Conference of IAPSM (usually held on the first day of the Conference). It is expected that the orations are based on some original scientific work undertaken by the awardee or some vital topic of public health importance.
- It is expected that the Orators will register themselves as delegates for the Conference.
- The Orators will be awarded a medal and a citation.
- A person chosen for receiving an Oration of IAPSM can use the suffix "Dhanvantari/ Harcharan Singh Orator" only after receiving the citation for the same.
- The decision of the Governing Council for awarding Orations is final, binding and cannot be challenged.

- Visit website www.iapsm.org for guideline.

Guidelines to fill the form

- 1) The nominee should have received FIAPSM to be eligible for IAPSM Fellow .
- 2) Work experience will be considered to marking up to maximum of 40 marks.
 - International level, = 4 marks/year of experience
 - National level = 3 marks/year of experience,
 - State level = 2 marks/year of experience
 - District level = 1 mark/year of experience

Work experience at higher level will be considered first for marking followed by experience at lower level. E.g. if a nominee has worked for 4 years at national level and 5 years at state level, he will be allotted $4 \times 3 = 12$ marks for national experience. Thereafter, he will be given $5 \times 2 = 10$ marks for state level work experience. So, he will get 22 marks out of 40 marks for work experience.

- 3) Nominee should have minimum 5 published articles to become eligible. Journal articles Indexed in PubMed or Science citation index indexed Journals carries higher weightage of 3 marks/article.
 - Journal articles in indexed Journals other than PubMed Indexed / Science citation index will carry 2 marks/article while Journal articles in non- indexed Journals will carry 1 mark/article.
 - Nominee need to attach a proof of journal indexation.
 - Sequence of authorship will not be considered for marking (marking will be equal for 1st author or 2nd author or 3rd author and so on).
 - Maximum marks for journal articles will be 30.

- 4) h-index of the Nominee will be considered for marking as a proxy of importance of researcher's work.

H-Index of 5-10 will be allotted 10 Marks, H-index of 10-20 will be allotted 20 Marks and H-index of >20 will be allotted 30 marks. (up to maximum 30 marks).

Nominee is advised to follow following steps to generate his/her h-index:

Open a free account on researchgate.net → fill all academic / institutional details → allow ResearchGate to find your publication automatically and verify the same → upload your remaining publications if necessary → view your h-index in your profile section (Scores tab) of your ResearchGate account and attach a proof of the same in form of screenshot.

Notes:

- It may take a few days to generate your free account on ResearchGate. It will ask you to provide your publication details or email id of a colleague who is using ResearchGate.
- Nominee is requested to provide latest h-index up to 31st January
- Nominee can send screenshot of h-index on that date separately through mail on iapsmsecretarygeneral@gmail.com this will be incorporated in calculation.
