

4th IAPSM Young Leaders' National Conclave

4th - 5th November 2023

Pre-conclave Workshops: 3rd November 2023

Venue: Auditorium, College Campus,
Dayanand Medical College & Hospital, Ludhiana, Punjab

Organized By: Department of Community Medicine

Welcome

Dear Friends and Colleagues

It's a matter of immense pleasure and privilege for us to invite you to 4th IAPSM Young Leaders' National Conclave at Dayanand Medical College & Hospital (DMC&H), Ludhiana, Punjab organized by Department of Community Medicine.

This conclave is organized every year with the objective of inspiring the young Community Medicine Physicians and envisages to explore, elucidate, and strengthen the roles of Community Physicians for long-term improvement and maintenance of health of the populations. It will give them the impetus to strive for professional excellence and achieve sustainable health for all.

The multidimensional profile of Community Medicine Physician with increasing responsibilities is something to be proud of and celebrated. The conclave will provide a platform to 'Young Community Medicine Physicians' to realise their strengths and choose an appropriate dimension to work upon.

THEME:

COMMUNITY MEDICINE PHYSICIAN: EXPECTATIONS, REALITY & PROGRESSION

About IAPSM

The Indian Association of Preventive and Social Medicine (IAPSM) established in 1974, is a professional organization for epidemiologists, community medicine, family medicine, and public health specialists in India. With over 8000 members from across the country, the association provides a platform to exchange ideas and experiences, to develop new strategies and programs for disease prevention and health promotion, and advocate for policies that improve the health of the population. The association also conducts conferences, seminars, workshops, and training programs regularly, to update the knowledge and skills in various areas of public health. It also publishes three, peer-reviewed quarterly scientific journals which publish various research articles related to preventive and social medicine. (For more information: <http://www.iapsm.org>)
