Solan is the district headquarters of Solan district in Himachal Pradesh and is located 46 kms south of the state capital, Shimla. At an average elevation of 1,600 metres (5,200 ft), the place is named after the Hindu goddess “Shoolini Devi”. Every year in the month of June, a fair in the honor of goddess is held, featuring a 3-day mela at the central Thouudo grounds.

Solan is known as the "Mushroom city of India" because of the vast mushroom farming in the area. Directorate of Mushroom Research (DMR) is also situated at Chambaghat. Solan is also known as the "City of Red Gold" in reference to the bulk production of tomatoes in the area. The town is situated between Chandigarh and Shimla, on the Kalka-Shimla National Highway-22. The Kalka-Shimla narrow gauge heritage railway line, built by the British, passes through Solan.
